Fishing Fleet Movements.

Schs. Arabia and Blue Jacket were at Can-so on Saturday.

AT BAY OF ISLANDS.

Herring Have Struck in There and Vessels Are Loading.

Fish Are Reported To Be of Large Size.

Despatches received here yesterday from Bay of Islands, N. F., state that herring of large size have struck in there and that some of the vessels had begun to load.

STILL GOING UP.

Bank Trip of Sch. Harvard Brought Sky-High Prices.

The fare of salt bank cod of sch. Harvard brought sky-high figures yesterday, selling to John Pew & Son and George Perkins & Son for $4.60 per hundred weight for large, $4 for medium and $2.60 for snappers. This is one of the highest prices ever paid for a trip of salt bank cod, and one dealer yesterday said that figuring on a gold basis, he thought it was the highest ever paid for a bank fare of that size.

MACKEREL AT PROVINCETOWN.

Large and Tinkers Now Being Taken There.

There are signs of mackerel at Provincetown, and the traps and some of the boats there have taken some large and tinkers the past few days.

The Norway catch of mackerel to date is 12,976 barrels against 8872 barrels last year to date.

Struck Mackerel Off Portland.

The little fishing steamer Storm King of Portland caught 2440 mackerel off Cape Elizabeth on Monday and stocked $450 on the fare. The trip was landed at Portland and the fish were large, weighing over two pounds apiece.

Lost Trawls and Fish.

The fishing sch. Island Gem at Portland, reports while fishing off Jeffries banks, about 28 miles south of Cape Elizabeth, lost her trawls and a large stock of fish by having the trawls torn in pieces by a shark.

October 19

Herring in the Traps.

Heath's trap at Kettle Island took 30 barrels of large herring this morning. They were bought by Frank Stanwood, who put them in his freezer.

October 20

APPARENTLY NO LIMIT

To the Price Salt Bank Cod May Reach.

Fare of Sch. Edith McIntyre Brought Advance.

There is apparently no limit to the price salt bank cod may reach, as each succeeding arrival from the Grand Bank brings an advance over the fancy figures secured by its predecessor.

Yesterday afternoon the dory handline fare of sch. Edith McIntyre of Boothbay sold to Slade Gorton & Co., at $4.75 per hundred weight for large, $4.25 for medium and $2.75 for snappers.

The prices paid for salt bank fares since last Saturday have been the highest paid since the fall of 1891, when high prices ruled during October and November. During this time from $4.62 1-2 to $4.95 was paid for large cod and from $3.62 1-2 to $3.92 1-2 for medium. At one time during this period, the Board of Trade prices for salt bank fares were $4.75 for large and $3.70 for medium and the outside sales were $4.90 for large and $3.75 for medium.

MAY BE A MISTAKE.

Report That the Lunenburg Sch. Aldine Was Fined $500.

A despatch from St. John's, N. F., states that the Lunenburg, N. S., sch. Aldine, which loaded herring for this port, had been fined $500 for violation of the bait act.

The Aldine is at this port, having brought the first cargo of salt herring of the season to Slade Gorton & Co. and coming from White Bay. The captain of the vessel and the consignees are inclined to think that there is some mistake about the despatch.

The Aldine on her way here stopped at St. John's, N. F., and was detained there a few days because she did not have her fishing license, which could have been secured without expense. As the matter was an oversight the vessel was allowed to proceed to this port and the case set down for trial on November 10. Counsel has been engaged to defend the vessel when the case comes to trial.

GOOD STOCK.

Sch. W. H. Moody Gets $3200 on Georges Handline Trip.

Sch. W. H. Moody, Capt. Andrew Gorvenau, stocked $3200 on her recent Georges handline trip, most of the catch being halibut. Some of the crew got nearly $100 for their share of the trip. The stock is the largest made by a Georges handliner for a long time.

October 21

FINE SEASON'S WORK.

Capt. Joseph V. Cusick Stocked
$17,000 Salt Banking.

Independence II's Maiden Trip
Produced Stock of $8678.23.

Sch. Independence II, Capt. Joseph V. Cusick, stocked $8678.23 as the result of her maiden trip, weighting off 206,000 pounds of salt cod. Capt. Cusick will now fit the vessel for a Newfoundland salt herring trip.

Capt. Cusick has made a big season's work salt fishing, rolling up the fine stock of $17,000. He had made three trips to the banks this season, two in sch. Helen G. Wells, previous to this one in the new Independence II, being the only skipper to make three bank trips this year. This good work is in keeping with his reputation as one of the most hustling and fishy skippers sailing from this port.

HAD HEAVY GALE.

Four Salt Bankers Were at Louisburg Monday.

Three Parted Their Cable in Saturday's Storm.

Schs. Mabel D. Hines and Harry A. Nickerson of this port, and Elizabeth N., of Bucksport, arrived at Louisburg, C. B., on Monday. The captains of these vessels report Saturday night's gale as being very severe. All three of these vessels parted their cables and were obliged to make sail. They report the weather as very unfavorable for fishing on the banks and fish are very scarce.

Sch. Orpheus, arrived there Friday night from the fishing grounds off Scaterie. Capt. Spinney reports fish scarce and the weather bad for the prosecution of the work.

Saw Mackerel on Georges.

Capt. Thomas Somers of sch. Tamar, which arrived at Boston yesterday from Georges with a fare of fresh fish, reports seeing several schools of mackerel on that ground recently.

October 21

Saw Mackerel Seine Adrift.

Capt. Hickey of sch. S. S. Richards, which arrived at North Sydney, reports that on Sunday night, when about six miles off Georgetown Harbor he passed a large seine. The seine was rolled up in a large ball, as if it had been upset from a dory without being set. As the weather was very stormy the seine could not be secured.

From this it would seem that one of our late Cape Shore seiners has lost her seine.
